

Tea at
Allington Manor
SERVED 2.30PM – 5.30PM

Manor Afternoon Tea for 2

A selection of finger sandwiches, scones with locally produced strawberry jam, Cornish clotted cream & a selection of cakes served with your choice of freshly brewed tea £19.50

Manor Champagne Afternoon Tea for 2

As above served with a glass of chilled Champagne
£24.50

Manor cream tea for 1

Scones with locally produced strawberry jam & Cornish clotted cream served with your choice of freshly brewed tea.
£6.00

The tradition of afternoon tea as an occasion by itself dates back to Anna, 7th Duchess of Bedford, to whose daily peckishness we owe this most civilised of traditions

Coffees

Blue Mountain blend

A blend in which only the finest Arabica coffee beans are blended to emulate the smooth blue mountain Jamaica taste

Teas

Gold Medal Tips

A blend of conventional teas, which show particularly fine flavour in hard water.

Earl Grey

Scented with oil of Bergamot

Darjeeling

The Champagne of teas, exquisite bouquet reminiscent of muscatel.

Decaffeinated Ceylon

A smallish leaf with a clean strong flavour

Peppermint tea

Tea blended with peppermint oil

Chamomile tea

Chamomile tea contains the dried flowers of the Chamomile daisy, which provides a delicate and gentle flavour

China Green Tea

China green high levels anti oxidants, light grassy aroma

The tradition of afternoon tea as an occasion by itself dates back to Anna, 7th Duchess of Bedford, to whose daily peckishness we owe this most civilised of traditions

The tradition of afternoon tea as an occasion by itself dates back to Anna, 7th Duchess of Bedford, to whose daily peckishness we owe this most civilised of traditions